Behind Palace Walls: In the service of a Saudi princess By Cay Garcia

Cay Garcia was given only a few hours to pack up her belongings and leave Riyadh for good.

She had dared to confront her employer, a young Saudi princess, about the treatment of her staff. In this book, she shares the intrigues of Riyadh's expat community and exposes the nasty underbelly of the extravagant lives of Saudi Arabian royalty.

This candid and vivid account of her time in the service of the princess is part travelogue, part romance and part exposé.
