Annie feels like she made her decision, so why can't she manage to say that? Hayden and Annie say a hard goodbye before Hayden flies off on tour with Vas Happenin'. She stays in contact with both him and Colt, and as the holidays approach, with friendships on the line, she feels more and more pressured to make up her mind. She thinks she knows who she's supposed to be with, but how can she be sure she won't make the wrong choice?
