Editorial Review

From Kirkus Reviews

"A step-by-step manual for quitting crystal meth, for addicts and those who want to help them. Sharp, a former addict, presents a short, unsentimental and practical step-by-step guide to what methamphetamine addicts will face if they decide to quit. With patience, optimism and self-deprecating humor—not to mention an authoritative tone from his insider's knowledge—Sharp makes the entire experience of quitting and getting healthy seem not only possible but deeply alluring. A small book featuring an enormous amount of hard-won personal experience, calcifying into a commanding, reassuring guide for addicts to reclaim their lives." --Kirkus Reviews
