CIA: Crime Incorporated of America By Herbert G. Dorsey III

Herbert Dorsey does it again, by shining a spotlight on the dark underbelly of the CIA. The connection between the Jesuits, the Committee of 300, and the CIA is historically developed in the first chapter. Hidden under the cloak of "National Security," the criminal activity of the CIA; illegal narcotics trafficking, political assassination, murder, overthrowing governments and working with terrorists organizations is well documented in the following chapters. Names, companies and organizations complicit with CIA crimes are also documented. Solutions to the problem are also suggested.
