Revival Praying By Leonard Ravenhill

A challenge to all who are deeply concerned about a full-scale spiritual awakening in America

"From the burdened heart of a man of God come these burning pages," wrote V. Raymond Edman, late president of Wheaton College.

Moody Monthly said, "This is a plea for praying that will melt the preacher's heart, move the people and magnify the Lord Jesus."

Ravenhill begins by describing the great need for revival, and then utilizes the remaining chapters to effectively drive home the point.

He tells us that prayer is faith in action, and therefore the most essential ingredient in the production of revivals.

The book is not only freighted with exhortations, but filled with illustrations. He takes us to both biblical and extra-biblical examples of the art of effective praying.

The result is a fast-paced presentation of a crucial and much neglected subject.

"From the burdened heart of a man of God come these burning pages"

About the Author

Leonard Ravenhill was born in 1907 in the city of Leeds, in Yorkshire, England. After his conversion to Christ, he was trained for the ministry at Cliff College. It soon became evident that evangelism was his forte, and he engaged it with both vigor and power. Eventually he became one of England's foremost outdoor evangelists. His meetings in the war years drew traffic jamming crowds in Britain, and great numbers of his converts not only followed the Savior into the Kingdom, but into Christian ministry and the world's mission fields.

In 1939 he married an Irish nurse named Martha. Together they had three sons. Paul and David are ministers, and Philip is a teacher. Leonard went home to be with the Lord in November of 1994.
