The Rogue Not Taken By Sarah MacLean

The first in a brand new series from New York Times bestselling, RITA award-winning, author Sarah MacLean. The least-interesting Talbot sister scandalized society by striking her notoriously philandering brother-in-law and landing him backside-first in a goldfish pond. And we thought Sophie was the quiet one. When she finds herself the target of very public aristocratic scorn, Sophie Talbot flees, vowing to start a new life far from London. Unfortunately, the carriage in which she stows away isn't saving her from ruin ... it's filled with it. The Marquess of Eversley was espied descending a rose trellis--eluding an irate Earl and his once-future countess. No lady is safe from the Eversley's engagement ending escapades! Kingscote, Marquess of Eversley, has never met a woman he couldn't charm, a quality resulting in a reputation far worse than the truth and an irate summons to the Scottish border. When King discovers stowaway Sophie, however, the journey becomes anything but boring. He thinks she's trying to trick him into marriage. She wouldn't have him if he were the last man on earth. But carriages bring close quarters, dark secrets, and unbearable temptation, making opposites altogether too attractive.

Editorial Review

Review

"For a smart, witty, and passionate historical romance, I recommend anything by Sarah MacLean." --Lisa Kleypas, New York Times bestselling author, praise for the author

"When it comes to crafting wonderfully escapist love stories composed of equal measures of sexy romance and sharp wit, literary newcomer MacLean is unrivaled." --Chicago Tribune, praise for the author

From the Back Cover

Lady Sophie's Society Splash!

When Sophie, the least interesting of the Talbot sisters, lands her philandering brother-in-law backside-first in a goldfish pond in front of all society, she becomes the target of very public aristocratic scorn. Her only choice is to flee London, vowing to start a new life far from the aristocracy. Unfortunately, the carriage in which she stows away isn't saving her from ruin . . . it's filled with it.

Rogue's Reign of Ravishment!

Kingscote, "King," the Marquess of Eversley, has never met a woman he couldn't charm, resulting in a reputation far worse than the truth, a general sense that he's more pretty face than proper gentleman, and an irate summons home to the Scottish border. When King discovers stowaway Sophie, however, the journey becomes anything but boring.

War? Or More?

He thinks she's trying to trick him into marriage. She wouldn't have him if he were the last man on earth. But carriages bring close quarters, dark secrets, and unbearable temptation, making opposites altogether too attractive . . .

About the Author

Sarah MacLean grew up in Rhode Island, obsessed with historical romance and bemoaning the fact that she was born centuries too late for her own season. Her love of all things historical helped to earn her degrees from Smith College and Harvard University before she finally set pen to paper and wrote her first book. Sarah now lives in New York City with her husband, their dog, and a ridiculously large collection of romance novels.

Justine Eyre is a classically trained actress who has narrated dozens of audiobooks and has a prestigious Audie Award and two AudioFile Earphones Awards under her belt. Eyre is multilingual and known for her great facility with accents. She has appeared on stage, with leading roles in King Lear and The Crucible, and has had starring roles in four films on the indie circuit. Her recent television credits include Two and a Half Men and Mad Men.
