An underground culture has arisen around the Beatles since rumors began to surface that Paul had died—apparently in an automobile accident—and had been replaced. The date, ironically, was 9/11 of 1966. But was it true? In this brilliant book, the leading expert on the London 7/7 subway bombing—who exposed it as a hoax—takes us on an exploration of one of the strangest events in the history of rock and roll. He explains what appears to have happened, how and why.
