Cautious By Elizabeth Nelson

Finding her freedom.
An unexpected love triangle.
The strength to continue.

Misty Bauer is finally on her own—away from her abusive ex-husband, Richard, and starting over. She's hoping to find her footing in a new town, a new job, a new life. But an accident sends her down a path she didn't see coming.

Aaron Price, Misty's hunky fireman rescuer, keep running through her mind. Until he keeps landing in her bed. A new relationship isn't what she was looking for, but now that she's in one, is she strong enough to trust her heart to a new man?

Suddenly, Aaron is her emotional rescuer, not just her physical savior. When Misty's sister shows up, pregnant with Richard's child, Misty can't find the strength to go on alone. She turns to Aaron and finds herself falling for him hard. Will his love for Misty be what she needs to finally forgive, forget and trust again?
