Editorial Review

Review

Stacey Trock has compiled 10 crochet stuffed animal patterns with a complimenting item for baby, hats, blankets and more.

Stacey's animal patterns vary from amigurumi knitted dolls and stuffed animals in size. Her animals are larger and have more cuddle power.

She has created this book from a mother's point of view. She highlights a safety warning and alternative for eyes and nosepieces for children under three. She also addresses stuffing guidelines, on what not to use. The patterns suggest using acrylics and superwash wool yarns and those made from plant fibers. With a mother's busy schedule, there is no need to worry when they get dirty. You can throw them in the washing machine. There is an easy Hoodie Bird Blanket made from the single crochet stitch. The Sydney Snuggly Penguin and the Polar Penguin Hat compliment the blanket. There is a Tammy the Teddy Bear--who doesn't love a teddy bear-- with a Striped Bear Blanket. A bunny, pig, cat...are all patterns with blankets, hats and a bib or two to match.

Most children have a favorite stuffed animal. Make one of these for your little one or as a gift. I particularly liked her blanket patterns. They were attractive and looked cuddly, with a touch of different.
