Paths to Power By Floyd B. Wilson

The seventh the Assertion of the I completes the series. The other papers contain, to a certain extent, the application of the principles of the philosophy presented. Each student will need to make personal experiments, as I recognize that each one must modify, to some extent, the course I have followed, on account of his own temperament, environment and position in the cosmos. Many have been working and writing on similar lines; but they differ as to the discipline required to accomplish purpose. Herein I present a method that I have tested and proven to be practical. A few of these articles have appeared in some of our monthly publications, and two or three have been read before theS chool of Philosophy and other societies inN ew York city during the past two years.
