Traveling in Sin: Eleven Months, Twelve Countries, Sixty Pounds and One Proposal By George Rajna, Lisa Ellen Niver

This book includes eighty color photos from our journey. This exuberant and unique travel memoir is written in the voices of the story's two leading protagonists, George and Lisa, who meet on-line in January 2007. After exchanging emails and dating, the couple travels to Fiji over the summer of 2008 where George reveals his lifelong dream to travel the world for a year and urges Lisa to join him. With much convincing, the duo embarks on a journey that takes them from French Polynesia to New Zealand and Australia. From that point on, the "true" adventure begins as they journey by land across vast portions of Asia covering Indonesia to Mongolia. During these adventures, Lisa shrinks down her waist size while developing her inner courage and belief in herself; George learns to open up his heart to form a team-based relationship that leads to a culminating special proposal. Peppered with humorous characters, tears of joy and disaster, and different realities related to their varied social strata and travel style, George and Lisa meander around Asia seeing the sights, building their relationship and returning triumphant to the United States in love and excited about their imminent wedding. They both took a leap when leaving their jobs, home, cat and cultural clutter, and land together as a team with a new life. Find out more about Lisa and George at We Said Go Travel. Find out more about Lisa and George at We Said Go Travel This book includes eighty black and white photos from the journey. "Lisa and George didn't just sit around and fret about living the dream. They took action--and you'll be inspired by their story and their adventures." Lisa Napoli, Radio Shangri-La "Great idea, great writing, great story telling - great book!"
